Santa presents his gifts to Youville Residents

Santa Claus Visits Youville Home

The Marguerite d'Youville Auxiliary's Annual Christmas Party was held Saturday afternoon, December 12. Residents gathered in the auditorium of the Youville Home for an afternoon of festive entertainment. The youngsters of the Ellen Plotten Dancing School were greatly enjoyed by the senior citizens. The United Church Choir carolled through the halls and presented a concert in the Auditorium. During the entertainment, members of the Auxiliary served punch, and after, coffee, tea and cookies. Santa Claus was on hand to distribute gifts to each and every resident of the Home. He made the rounds of the wards for those patients not able to leave their rooms to attend the Christmas party. This afternoon is a highlight for the residents who surely find these long winter days dreary and slow to pass.

Council Meeting, Monday, December 14
Councillor Fowler chaired the meeting until the arrival of Mayor Veness.
Petition The question of Sunday store opening arose. Council was advised by the town solicitors that Council has no authority in this matter. The Lord's Day Act is a Federal act.
Christmas Party Council members and their wives have been invited to the Annual Christmas Party of the Town Staff to be held December 19 at the Derrick Golf and Winter Club.

Tenders for Fencing Grandin Park Social Rink Only two tenders were received, one after closing time, the other for $2,200. This figure seeming high to Council, the work will be done by the Parks Department for $1,500.
Recommendation for Grants A recommendation from the Recreation Board for grant to three recreational organizations in St. Albert was received by Council. Due to lack of confidence in the justification of the amounts of these grants, the matter was tabled for one week, at which time the president of the Recreation Board was asked to attend to better inform Council. The Recreation Board recommended the appointment of a Recreation Director. Some doubt as to the Board's authority to screen and recommend applications led to the matter being turned over to the Executive Committee.

Welfare Case Worker In the absence of the Finance Chairman and Welfare Chairmen these two reports were not available. However, Council did accept the resignation of Social Welfare Case Worker, Mrs. D. M. Jardine, who is leaving St. Albert to accept an offer in a specialized field.
Christmas Town Hall will be closed December 24 and 25 as in previous years. Council adjourned after a very brief agenda at 9 p.m.

BREAK IN

Grandin Shoppers Park seems to be a very attractive place for burglars. Some months ago, two stores were broken into. Again last Sunday morning another break in was attempted at Jim Byrnes' Men's and Boys' Wear. This time the thief was not so lucky, as some employees of Safeway were working early and saw him try to enter. They called police who arrived just in time to prevent the robbery. The thief was not a resident of St. Albert.

RECREATION BOARD

Recreation in our Town

The Recreation Board met in the Council Chambers for their regular meeting on November 13. Seven of the eight members were present. Present also were André Gato, Parks and Recreation Superintendent Alan Mickie, Recreation Area Director for Edmonton and a resident of St. Albert and volunteer counsellor to the St. Albert Recreation Board, also Mr. Gelin as from the St. Albert Hockey Association.

A letter was read by the secretary from the Figure Skating Association regarding skating times. The times have not been set as yet but the Board approved allotment of as much time for the St. Albert Figure Skating Association as was available.

The Parks and Recreation Superintendent submitted a form to be issued to clubs requesting grants from the Recreation Board.

Since the new bylaw provides for only one representation from the Council on the Recreation Board, the Council requested the Recreation Board to submit names for prospective candidates for the ninth member on the Recreation Board. The Recreation Board strongly recommended Alan Mickie for the vacancy.

The final item of business was the setting of time for future Board meetings. Second Friday at 8:30 p.m. was agreed upon.

During recess, two items were discussed which should be considered at a future meeting. It was felt that a ski slide with tow would be a desirable project for St. Albert and should be given serious thought. Also, it was noted that "Tin Can Curling" has been a great success in various places. It was thought that this might be suggested to the sponsors of the "Teen Club". A possible

ST. ALBERT ON STURGEON PLAYERS

Audiences were delighted with the groups fall production of TRIPOD II last Wednesday and Saturday. Although the houses weren't as full as usual, due to Christmas being so near, both audiences were appreciative and responsive.

The first play "Hello Out There" was a drama and probably the most difficult play the group has attempted to date. The scene was a small town prison cell and the two main characters, a gambler wrongfully jailed on a charge of rape and a young girl who cooks for the jail, were admirably played by Bob Carlyle and Carlee Adams. Many people were moved to tears by Carlee's portrayal. The play was well directed by Joost Wearheyn. Although this was Joost's first attempt at directing, more of his hidden talents have been made evident.

The second play "Another Way Out" was of lighter nature. The audiences appreciated the fine acting of Delores Knill who played the part of Margaret, a sculptress. Len Harris ably portrayed Pendleton who was a writer and also living common-law with Margaret in their penthouse studio. Katie Moffat as the Baroness de Beauville, a couturiere, or as she called herself, an artist in modern attire, added a touch of elegance. Considering this was his first part in any play, Irving MacLean did an excellent job as the dictionary salesman who calls on Margaret to sell her a dictionary, but is mistaken for her model. The part of Mrs. Abbey the housekeeper, was very ably portrayed by Mona Sutherland.

The play was very successfully directed by Doug Ingle, one of the Club's long standing members, in his first directing attempt also.

The players in the last play "Shadow in the Glen" must be congratulated for the Irish accent, which along with their excellent acting, made the play so authentic. The scene was a small cottage on the Irish moor. Ann Geary played Nora, the lady of the house, who thought her husband dead and gave an able performance. So did Derek Webster as the tramp who visited the cottage in time for a farcical wake. Derek was in character throughout his performance. John Van Imachoot, who had to overcome his age and Belgian accent, played the part of Nora's secret boyfriend. Peter Lenard who played the part of the not so dead old husband who lay motionless under a sheet for the first half of the play. He suddenly sprang to life, full of vim and vigour, and delighted everyone with his portrayal of the doddering old Irishman who caught his younger wife "in the act". The Club is grateful to Maureen Murphy who came to our rescue only three weeks before production and did such a fine job, directing this play.

As well as his fine performance on stage, Peter Lenard must be congratulated on his set designs. We are also very grateful to all the backstage workers and anyone who helped in any way.

Square Dance

Square Dancers from St. Albert, Sherbrooke and Jasper Place, enjoyed a Christmas party and dance at St. Albert High School gym, Saturday, December 12. Five squares danced to the call of St. Albert's Sid Dequire. Hosts to the visitor's were the St. Albert "Saints and

'n Sinners", a beginners group formed in early November. President of the new dance club is Doug McMillan; secretary treasurer is Joyce Kelly and publicity director, Neil Murray.

After the dance, sandwiches and coffee were served, courtesy of the St. Albert ladies.

The "Saints 'n Sinners" dance each Saturday night, 8:30 to 11 p.m. with refreshments served after the dance. Anyone interested in joining the club, or just spending an evening with us, can obtain further information by phoning 599-7466 or 599-6704.

CANOE PADDLERS ASSOCIATION

(As we have several prominent canoeists in our district, we would like to publish the programme of the Alberta Canoe Paddlers Association.)

On Nov. 8, a meeting of canoeists from Calgary, Edmonton, Red Deer and Rocky Mountain House was held in Red Deer.

The result of this meeting was the formation of the Alberta Paddler's Association. This group will act as a governing body for competitive and pleasure canoeing in Alberta.

The following officers were elected: president - John Nikel, Edmonton; executive vice president - Vic Maxwell, Rocky Mountain House; first vice-president - Alberta Abel, Calgary; secretary treasurer - Ed Kirsch, Edmonton.

This Association will co-ordinate and assist all interested groups in Alberta with the aims of:

1. Developing competitive racers in the Province.
2. With the help of the Provincial Government, establish well mapped canoe routes for pleasure paddlers, tourists and hunters.

Canoe Race

A canoe race under the sponsorship of the Alberta Paddler's Association will be taking place July 9, 10, 11, 1965. Starting at Rocky Mountain House and finishing at Edmonton, the race will follow the North Saskatchewan River, retracing the original fur trading route pioneered by David Thompson.

First Lap. July 9. Rocky Mountain House - Drayton Valley (30 miles).

Second Lap. July 10. Drayton Valley - Devon (90 miles).

Final Lap. July 11. Devon - Edmonton (25 miles)

The purse will be approximately $4,000. This race focuses on Central Alberta, and will complement the dates of the Calgary Stampede and Klondike Days in Edmonton. Being open to all two-man crews using standard Canadian canoes and single paddles, an event of this nature can be expected to draw entries from all parts of Canada and U.S.A.

It is felt that this race will become a major tourist attraction for all of Alberta, and with this in view, it is proposed that the centres of Rocky Mountain House, Drayton Valley, Devon, and Edmonton, co-ordinate their summer activities with this event.
